

“The European-American Agenda”

A Dialogue with the German and French Ambassadors

His Excellency, Mr. Klaus Scharioth, Ambassador of the Federal Republic of Germany to the United States of America

His Excellency, Mr. Pierre Vimont, Ambassador of The French Republic to the United States of America

DATE: January 28, 2010

TIME: 11:15am – 12:45pm

LOCATION: Tennenbaum Auditorium, Instructional Center
Georgia Tech campus, 759 Ferst Drive

Free and Open to the Public- No RSVP required

The European Union Center of Excellence at Georgia Tech is honored to welcome Ambassador Klaus Scharioth of Germany and Ambassador Pierre Vimont of France to the Georgia Tech campus for a discussion of the state of the EU and EU-US relations as we enter a new decade. During what is sure to be a stimulating and informative session, the Ambassadors will share their views on the implications of the Lisbon Treaty for the European Union and the transatlantic relationship. The talk will be moderated by Dr. Vicki Birchfield, Director of the EU Center of Excellence, and will be followed by a question and answer session with the audience.

A luncheon following the event is hosted by the ATLANTA COUNCIL ON INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

Time: 12:45 p.m. - 2:45 p.m.

Cost: Lunch & Program for members $30 ; for non-members $40

Place: Capital City Club, 7 Harris Street, NW

RSVP: Francesca Cesa Bianchi at <mailto:fcesabianchi@hotmail.com> (please include ACIR luncheon in the subject) prior to January 25